

2019
Human Resources Professional of the Year Award
North Carolina Trucking Association Deadline
May 31, 2019
Email application to: info@nctrucking.com

North Carolina Trucking Association Safety and Human Resources Council provide their members the opportunity to become more involved in the industry, interacting with other industry professionals, sharing “best practices” ideas and opportunities to partner with state, federal and enforcement agencies.

The Council is now accepting nominations for the Human Resources Professional of the Year Award! This prestigious award will be presented to a Human Resources leader who deserves to be recognized for extraordinary contributions. This person is engaged in the NCTA Safety and Human Resources Council and serves as the “go-to” person for guidance and solutions in the transportation industry. This person partners with both Safety and Human Resources professional to come up with innovative ideas relating to driver recruitment and retention, and human resources and labor issues. The award will be presented at the NCTA Annual Councils Conference in October 2019.
